REVIEW OF TRADE.

R. G. Dun & Company's Report on Business.

NO APPREHENSIONS FEARED.

The President's Decisions About the Redemption of Certain Bonds Allays All Fears as to the Monetary Situation. Stocks Stronger—The Present Situation of the Financial World.

NEW YORK, April 29.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: President Cleveland's decision about redemption of legal tenders, all admit has arrested what threatened to become disturbances. Gold exports have ceased, sterling exchange has fallen to $4.87 1-2, some gold has gone into the treasury from Boston and other cities, and rates for money have declined from 10 to 4 1-2 per cent. Stocks have been stronger, gaining about $1.50 per share for the week, and some produce markets are rising again.

Yet cold and wet weather and monetary uncertainty have caused distinct depression in trade, collections are almost everywhere behind, and interior money markets are growing closer or more conservative. Reports from all parts of the country indicate that trade has been much retarded by bad weather and unsettled money markets and complaints of poor collections are general.

Business at Boston is not active, in dry goods smaller than last year; in wool and woolsens, cotton, shoes and groceries dull; in furniture fair and in lumber, structural iron and building materials good.

At Philadelphia failures have caused some timidity and retail sales are restricted by the weather: wool and dry-goods are inactive, sales of tobacco, liquors and jewelry small, but the grocery trade slightly improved, while hardware is busy and paints and building materials in fair demand.

Trade is good and building supplies active at Baltimore, but money tight.

At Pittsburgh iron is in worse condition, but the glass trade fair and trade in hardware very good.

Business at Cleveland is fairly good, but lake freights are demoralized and manufactured iron active but lower.

At Cincinnati the weather and the money markets are depressing, but the tobacco trade is good. Money and collections are slow at Indianapolis and at Detroit, the weather affecting all trade.

Chicago reports decreased wholesale trade and collections behindhand, retail trade and construction work being retarded by the weather, and building materials below last fall's prices. The demand for money is heavy and banks are conservative.

No improvement is seen at Milwaukee and St. Paul reports seedling retarded by the weather and collections poor.

At Sioux City no panic resulted from heavy bank failures, and at Omaha trade is very active, but retarded at St. Joseph by bad weather.

Business is fair at Kansas City, with cattle steadier, but trade is quiet at Denver.

At St. Louis jobbing trade is good, collections free and money in greater demand. Southern orders are small, but cotton seed is in demand for replanting. At points in Tennessee trade is generally sluggish and collections small. At Montgomery and at Atlanta some improvement is seen, but at Charleston trade is dull.

New Orleans reports a fair trade with a special activity in real estate and building materials, but there and at most other southern points collections are slow. Distribution of products to consumers falls short of expectations. Monetary uncertainties and failures make people anxious and cautious. Wheat seedling has been greatly retarded by rains, and much cotton has been killed, and signs of industrial depression affect the purchases of millions.

The dry goods business is plainly taking in sail, buying only from hand to mouth and waiting for events, so that this is called the dullest April for years. Sales of wool are greatly reduced, and some grades of ginghams, cambrics and other cotton goods are lower, with stocks accumulating. In leather the sales have grown lighter for weeks and stocks are growing, though the boot and shoe shops are still working on old orders and their shipments are large.

The failure of the Pennsylvania Steel company causes much depression and makes it harder for other iron concerns to obtain accommodations, especially in the rail business, because it is doubted whether the receivers can renew the compact of makers which expires July 1. Trade in pig iron is waiting, and consumption of manufactured products does not encourage hope of better prices, though in plates there is more inquiry from shippers, and in bar from carbuilders. Structural iron is in demand throughout the country, but at low prices. Copper has declined, contracts with consumers at 11 cents for lake being reported. Tin is weaker at 20.6 cents, and lead at 4.05 cents, and agents have reduced western prices of coal 15 cents.

Removal of anxieties about money has strengthened stocks; railroad earnings continue large and the proposed reorganization of the Reading causes quite a boom, while some buying from Europe has been reported. Cotton is an eighth lower on sales of 800 bales, in spite of reported injuries, the pressure of heavy stocks being felt as money tightens. Corn has risen a cent and pork $1 per barrel, and the speculations at Chicago seemed to have revived with the bad weather, which delays farming operations. Even wheat is a quarter of a cent higher than a week ago, with sales of 5,000,000 bushels here, though receipts at the west are still heavy and shipments by lake enormous. Produce exports have improved a little, but for the month all exports from New York are still much behind last year's, while imports here show an increase of $9,000,000.

The state of foreign trade is still of danger to the money market, which no action of the administration, however wise, can entirely relieve.

The business failures for the last seven days number for the United States 216, Canada 22, total 238, as compared with 208 last week, 209 the week previous to the last and 211 for the corresponding week of last year.

WORLD'S CONGRESS OF BANKERS

To Be Held in Chicago During the Week June 10 to 25 Next.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Rhodes' Journal of Banking for May will contain the announcement that a world's congress of bankers and financiers is to be held in Chicago during the week from June 10 to 25, 1893. Mr. Lyman J. Page, president of the First National bank of Chicago, will preside.

The address of welcome to foreign delegates at the opening of the congress will, it is expected, be made by the Hon. John Sherman, who will be followed by an eminent banker of the United States with a general address of welcome.

Then will follow the introduction to the congress of delegates from foreign countries—England, France, Germany, Austria, Russia, Italy, Belgium, Holland, Japan and China and other nations. Each delegate will, it is expected, take the opportunity to enlighten the congress upon the banking systems, methods, resources and finances of his own land. These will be followed by other papers and addresses upon general monetary and financial topics.

During the progress of the congress there will be several conferences of experts in particular branches of banking and finance:

First—A conference of delegates appointed by the governors of the several states and territories and Canada to compare banking systems, methods of business, banking resources and general investments peculiar to each.

Second—A conference of delegates from bankers' associations in the United States and Canada and also from bankers' clubs. A delegate from the London Institute of Bankers is expected. Each bankers' association will send not more than five delegates. The discussion will be upon the purposes of association among banks and the possibility of closer union.

Third—There will be a conference of delegates from clearinghouses in the United States, Canada and England to consult on clearinghouse methods, and to formulate, if possible, some plan of union among clearinghouses.

Fourth—There will be a conference of bank examiners and accountants from all parts of the world and of superintendents of banking departments under the several state governments.

These conferences will be held in separate rooms during the progress of the congress, if necessary.

To those who desire to present papers at the congress of bankers and financiers during the week from June 10 to 25, inclusive, or who are entitled to take part in any of the conferences mentioned above as forming part of the congress, will address William Bull Greene, secretary, 603 North Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J.

Demand For Messenger Boys.

CINCINNATI, April 29.—There has been a regular exodus of messenger boys from this city to the world's fair, where they doubtless hope to secure similar employment. Railway men say that scarcely a freight train goes out without its quota of runaway messengers. Four messenger service companies yesterday had signs in their office windows, "boys wanted," and they are having great difficulty in serving their patrons for lack of "kids." One of the local managers said: "It is even worse in some of the other cities, where they have been compelled to hire men at double and triple the salaries paid the boys, but we haven't gotten to that stage yet."

Distribution of War Vessels.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Now that the naval review is a thing of the past, the distribution of the ships of the American fleet is about to take place. The first steps in this direction were taken yesterday by which four of the vessels will go to navy yards for repairs. The San Francisco will proceed to the New York navy yard tomorrow and the Charleston will go to Norfolk. The Yorktown and Bennington will leave New York waters Monday, the former probably going to the New York navy yard and the latter to the Norfolk yard.

Only Cabinet Officer on Duty.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Postmaster General Bissell did not go to Chicago as he contemplated, but returned to this city and resumed his duties at the post-office department. He is the only cabinet officer in town. Fourth Assistant Postmaster Maxwell will take a holiday from the task of appointing fourth class postmasters, on which he has been steadily engaged for over six weeks. He will go to New York state to see his family and will return probably on Tuesday.

Bridge Tender Drowned.

CHICAGO, April 29.—Owing to someone's carelessness an Illinois Central train dashed upon the Ninety-second street bridge over the Calumet river, as the latter was turning to let a boat pass, and John Johnson, the bridge tender, was thrown into the river and drowned. The engine and tender crashed through the bridge into the river, the engineer and fireman escaping by swimming ashore.

BONHAM, Tex., April 29.—Jim Burke and Sam Massey, both colored, were hanged here. Between 10,000 and 15,000 people witnessed the double execution.

STRIKE THREATENED

Labor Troubles Feared the First of May.

THE MINERS TO QUIT WORK.

Demand For an Increase of Wages to Be Followed by a Gigantic Strike if Refused—The Whole Pittsburgh District Involved—Millions Ready For Duty in Case of Trouble.

COLUMBUS, O., April 29.—President John Nugent of the Ohio Mine Workers is here and a meeting of miners will be held in this city to consider the strike situation. There is very little doubt that the men will be called out, as the operators have shown no indications of an intention to pay the increase demanded.

The meeting will be made up of the executive board and two delegates from each sub-district in the state, in all about 30. Nugent says that the men will be called out if the operators still decline to advance the price for pick mining 5 cents a ton, and 20,000 miners will be idle in this state alone.

The delegates are instructed to stand by the demand for an advance, and if northern Illinois, Indiana and western Pennsylvania, known as the Pittsburgh district, join the Ohio miners the strike will be quite a formidable affair and general.

The best information is that the miners from all these localities have decided to stand by the Ohio miners.

President Nugent claims that the best of feeling exists, but that the miners are determined in their efforts to secure an increase and a general strike will be ordered to begin on May day.

ANTICIPATE TROUBLE.

Grave Fears Existing of a Miners' Strike to Take Place May 1.

CINCINNATI, April 29.—In anticipation of trouble among the miners in the Hocking valley region, the First regiment of the Ohio national guard is making preparations to go there at a moment's notice. Adjutant General Howe was in Cincinnati all day yesterday and refuses to deny or affirm that he is here for the purpose of getting the military in shape for a sudden call to the Hocking valley, but it is a fact that the sergeants of every company in Cincinnati belonging to the regiment have been furnished with a list of men whom they are expected to be ready for duty May 1.

The first sergeant of Company K has informed the American Press representative that he had already served notice upon the quota of men whose names had been furnished him.

The matter is common talk on 'Change, and the local coal men interested in the Hocking region practically admit that any violence to property or rioting among the miners will be promptly suppressed.

HORRIBLY SCALDED.

Almost a Tragedy Takes Place at a Wedding.

BLUFFTON, Ind., April 29.—At Assiaw, Ind., 10 miles north of this city, Robert Hatfield and Miss May Millen called at the residence of Rev. Edward Craven, pastor of the Presbyterian church of that village, to be joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. Just as the minister was in the act of speaking the concluding words of the ceremony the usual boiling party struck up without, and it was with great difficulty that the ceremony was finished.

Completing his duties, Rev. Craven, determined to put a stop to the terrible din and grabbed up a pan of scalding hot water, which was setting upon the stove. Stepping to the door he dashed it square into the face and eyes of Jean Tison, aged 21 years, who was standing near the door beating a bass drum. The howls from pain that followed were terrible to be heard. The young man was immediately taken to Dr. Newman's office, where it was found that his eyes and face were terribly scalded. It is feared that his eyesight will be forever impaired. Rev. Craven is almost distracted over the awful affair.

Will Soon Be a Free Man.

COLUMBUS, O., April 29.—The gates of the Ohio penitentiary will open on May day and E. L. Harper, once a Napoleon of finance, will walk out to try the world again. His wrecking of the Fidelity bank of Cincinnati, in an effort to corner the wheat market of the country, is well remembered. Harper entered the penitentiary Dec. 13, 1887, to serve a term of 10 years. He has been a model prisoner, courteous to all his fellow convicts, and has been useful in various clerical capacities. President Harrison pardoned him on the score of ill health, reputable physicians having certified that the prisoner was suffering from kidney trouble, from which he could not permanently recover. Harper is already making preparations to enter upon a business career in Cincinnati.

Poiled With Molten Metal.

WABASH, Ind., April 29.—Master Mechanic C. H. Doebler of the Big Four road at this point was very seriously burned with molten metal at the shop by plunging a wet walking-stick into a kettle of boiling babbit. The stuff exploded, severely burning his face and scorching off his eyebrows.

Dropped Dead.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., April 29.—Mrs. W. D. Smythe, wife of the ex-county commissioner, dropped dead of heart disease while visiting a neighbor in this city.

OLD LIBERTY BELL.

The Ancient Relic Reaches Its Destination.

CHICAGO, April 29.—The old liberty bell arrived at the union depot in this city last night at 9:25 o'clock. The train bearing the bell was met at the state line by a special train on which was the reception committee and city officials and the car was at once attached to the return train. The welcome which the Chicago committee gave to the escort was everything that could be desired. The members assured the Philadelphians that Chicago appreciated the honor that had been conferred by bringing the bell here and allowing it to remain six months; that they would guard it as carefully as they would their lives and their homes and return it safe.

Some 2,000 people assembled at the Union depot to welcome the bell on its arrival, and their cheers attracted many thousands more from the streets. All during the earlier portion of the night people passed by in review. The members of the city council met the officials at the depot, and the entire party went to the Auditorium hotel where apartments had already been secured. A strong detachment of picked police were detailed to assist the Philadelphia enthusiasts in guarding the cherished relic.

At Logansport, Ind.

LOGANSPORT, April 29.—Logansport gave a royal reception to liberty bell, the special train bearing the bell and its escorts, Mayor Stuart and other officials of Pennsylvania, pulling in the Panhandle yards at 4:30, and was greeted by cheers from the railroad men and salutes from the engines. The station was reached through a line of cheering citizens, and not less than 7,000 people had assembled there. A salute of 13 guns was fired. The bands played and the military saluted. Mayor Read of Logansport made a short address of welcome, which was responded to by Mayor Stuart of Philadelphia, after which the crowd passed along and viewed the emblem of American independence. At 5 o'clock the train sped on its way to Chicago.

Liberty Bell at Kokomo.

KOKOMO, Ind., April 29.—The special train bearing the liberty bell and its escort passed through Kokomo, via the Panhandle railway from Indianapolis, at 4 p. m. Five thousand people stood through a drenching rain to greet it. The public schools were closed and 1,500 pupils gathered en masse near the tracks where they sang and cheered until the train pulled away after a stop of 10 minutes.

Railway Station Robbed.

GRANVILLE, O., April 29.—Tramps broke into the Toledo and Ohio Central station here and ransacked the place. They secured a few watches and some jewelry from a traveling salesman's valise, the value of which is unknown, as the salesman has not returned. The weighing machine was broken into and robbed of $4, and some cigars and tobacco were taken from the freighthouse. The thieves made away with their booty on a railway bicycle until overtaken by a train at Alexandria, when they took to the woods.

Traveling Man Held Up.

VALPARAISO, Ind., April 29.—A traveling man alighted from a Monon freight train at Wanatah Thursday evening, and on his way to the hotel was held up by five tramps and robbed of his money and watch. They also took his coat and shoes, but finally concluded to give them back.

THREATENED WAR.

It Has Finally Broke Out in Colorado.

INDIANS AGAINST SETTLERS.

Eight of the Latter Already Killed and More Bloodshed to Follow—The Situation Very Critical and the United States Troops Called on For the Protection of the People.

DENVER, April 29.—The long threatened war of the Navajo Indians against the settlers of the country in the vicinity of The Lands has come at last, and with it the death of eight settlers. Such was the startling news received by Adjutant General Kennedy. The adjutant general received a telegram from Lieutenant Plummer, Indian agent of the Navajos, in which he stated that eight white men had been murdered by the Indians who are now at war with the settlers. He declared that the situation is a very critical one and asked that the troops be called out to prevent further bloodshed.

The telegram was addressed to Governor Waite, but he is out of the city, and the matter was referred by Secretary Lorentz to the adjutant general. Lieutenant Plummer stated that the people below Durango are in a wild state of excitement, and grave fears are entertained lest the Indians continue their warfare along the valley. In his message the lieutenant states that two battles have been fought already. The first was early yesterday, when five men were killed, all settlers, while at another encounter three more whites lost their lives, and further bloodshed is anticipated.

The adjutant general forwarded the information to the war department at Washington, and it is not unlikely that orders will be issued from that source for the removal of the troops now quartered at Fort Logan. They can act outside the state and would be of more avail in a conflict with the Indians than state troops. Adjutant General Kennedy was inclined to regard the situation with a good deal of concern, although expressing the belief that the trouble would not extend very far north.

He declined to give copies of the telegrams received and sent by him, stating that it was contrary to orders. In speaking of the affair he said that there are 250 bucks who are raising the disturbance.

"They are all mounted and equipped," said he, "with the best repeating rifles, and have ample supplies for a long war. They are a bad lot and reveling in plunder and murder. There has been ill feeling among them for a long time, and it has at last come to a head. The settlers down in that country and the Indians never could get along in peace. The Indians are continually plundering and stealing from the whites, who have submitted to the thefts until the past few days.

"The present conflict was precipitated by the resistance of the whites to the depredations of a band of warriors, who raided the stock of the cattlemen.

"They drove off a large herd of cattle, which they took to the mountains. This so incensed the stockmen that they organized a large party and went to recover the cattle.

"The Indians fled on the approach of the cowboys at first, and the cattlemen were rejoicing at what they thought very easy victory; and after they had secured their cattle started to return to their ranges. They had proceeded but a very short distance, however, when they were attacked from the flank as they were passing through a sort of shallow canyon by the entire band of 250.

"A desperate encounter followed, in which five cowboys were killed, and, it is believed, a number of Indians. The red men of course had the advantage, and from their vantage points up above their adversaries fought with telling effect upon the cattlemen, who were finally repulsed.

"They took with them a portion of the herd of cattle which they had recovered, and retreated. The Indians by this time were thoroughly aroused and started on a marauding expedition across the country."

The reservation of the Navajos is a large one, covering some 12,000 square miles in the northwestern Arizona, New Mexico and northeastern Arizona, and extends up to the southern line of Colorado. On this there are thousands of Indians who are liable to go on the warpath. The band of 250 started from the reservation over in Arizona, crossed the line into New Mexico, going due east to a town called Jennett, going thence on the San Juan river and are now in that vicinity.

A dispatch from Durango says: Three hundred Navajos have captured Tom Whyte's trading post mission at Hogback, on the San Juan river, near Welsh's ranch. The homes of other settlers are surrounded by Indians, who are threatening to kill and burn.

James Handy arrived from the scene of action, which is about 70 miles south of Durango, this morning at 5 o'clock and after securing a supply of ammunition for settlers, changed teams and returned at once. Agent Bartholomew wired the Indian department regarding the situation this morning, but as the Navajos are beyond his jurisdiction he can do nothing.

COSHOCOTON, O., April 29.—Five prisoners escaped from jail here by cutting through the floor into the cellar, then crawling through the coalhole into the alley. All were under sentences to the penitentiary ranging from 18 months to four years. Poses are scouring the country in all directions in search of them. None of them have as yet been taken.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Threatening weather and occasional local rains; slightly colder; easterly winds.

LOUISVILLE citizens voted last Thursday to issue $1,000,000 in four-per-cent. bonds, which will be donated to the State if that city is made the Capital of Kentucky. They evidently mean business down there. This rather knocks out Lexington, Danville and other bidders for the seat of government.

It is announced that the sugar bounties for this fiscal year will aggregate about $9,100,000 or $900,000 less than was estimated by Secretary Foster last autumn. This is $9,100,000 more than the bounties ought to be. In plain words no bounties at all should be paid. There's no justice in taxing one branch of business to build up another.

The Hoosier Poet.

James Whitcomb Riley, the celebrated Hoosier dialect poet, will give one of his popular readings at the opera house next Monday night. An exchange says: "He is read in England as much as he is in his native land. His homely pathos and humor has given to his creations life and blood that will outlive all time. Bret Harte and Mark Twain not excepted, Riley deserves a place in the front rank of all American humorists. While in London last year he was showered with attentions, dined by all the great clubs, notwithstanding his native modesty and retiring disposition. At a dinner given in his honor by Henry Irving at the Lyric Club, the foremost literary men of the British Empire were present."

Maysvillians who heard Riley a year or so ago know that a rich treat is in store for all who go to the opera house Monday night. Admission only 50 cents. Twenty-five cents extra for reserved seats.

The Washington Fire Company will give $15 in gold as prizes to the young ladies who sell the most tickets for the approaching entertainment for the benefit of the company, when "A Woman's Devotion" will be rendered, on May 16, 17, 18. First prize $10; second prize $5. By calling on Mr. C. H. Frank at John T. Martin's Red Corner Clothing House any time after 8 a. m. Wednesday, May 3rd, you can get tickets to sell and full particulars.

The Governor's Veto of the Louisville Charter Knocked Out—Legislative Doings.

The Senate Committee on Municipalities, by a vote of seven to two, recommended Thursday morning that the charter for the city of Louisville be passed over the Governor's veto. The report of the committee was taken up in the Senate Thursday morning, and the outcome was watched with intense interest. A number of Louisville officials, including the Mayor, were present. Members who had been converted in this, that, and the other way, explained their votes, the explanation always being followed by a vote for the charter. The charter was passed over the veto by a vote 24 to 7. It required only 20 votes.

AN OLD FIGHT.

The Prohibitionists After the Violators of the Liquor Law in Fleming County.

Correspondence of the BUREAU.

FLEMINGSBURG, April 28, 1893.

A bomb exploded in the camp of violators of the liquor laws here Thursday evening. The prohibition law has been violated freely and a detective's service was brought into use by friends of the law. A large number of cases are made against the violators and the fight will wax warm, especially so since the violators will hate to give up and the friends of prohibition have backed their determination with their money.

Once before when a local investigation was on hand a portable saloon was moved temporarily, about midnight, and on account of this shrewdness the investigators were thwarted from their purpose. It has been discovered that this "saloon" was supplied by special delivery with its beer between midnight and 3 a. m. Mr. Cates, one of the detectives, was arrested Thursday night upon warrants sworn out by parties whom he had treated. These warrants are said to have been issued at the investigation of the whisky sellers so as to scare off the detective, but he didn't scare. Immediately following his arrest an attorney for the Law and Order Society—Hon. John P. McCartney—authorized the Sheriff to fix a bond for Mr. Cates. The bond was signed by enough citizens to make it, what Sheriff Drenan says, "the strongest bond he has ever taken." There promises to be a lively time over the matter.

Mrs. Eva Schatzmann, wife of Reason Schatzmann, died a few days ago at Fincastle, Brown County, aged thirty-seven years.

Rev. T. B. Cook and wife of Germantown were the victims of a dastardly outrage the other night. They were returning from Hebron Church, when, at the intersection of the Clark's Run and Germantown pikes, a couple of men ran up to the buggy and dashed a bucket of filth upon the occupants. The supposition is that the parties who committed this outrage were after another person, and made a mistake in the darkness. They should be ferreted out and punished.

A sharper named William G. Bowen swindled several Harrison County people out of some of their good money this week. He appeared at Havelandsville, purchased a building site in the little town and put a number of laborers at work making excavations for a handsome residence. He then came to Cynthiana and contracted for buggies, wagons and farming implements, but while making these preliminary arrangements he succeeded in borrowing several sums of money from different people. He left Monday and his victims are now turning up.

INSTRUMENT OF DEATH.

An Invention to Make Short Work of Executions.

COLUMBUS, O., April 29.—George Jeremiah has applied for a patent on an apparatus contrived to make short work of executions. The object of the invention is stated to be to make death certain and to avoid disfigurement. The apparatus consists of a hinged chair, in which the criminal is fastened with his head and neck resting on a block. A leather-lined helmet is then fitted on the prisoner's head.

A machine, operated by a trigger and spring, is attached to the chair and helmet. When the time comes for the execution an officer touches the trigger and the machine gives a downward and rotary motion to the helmet something after the twist used in wringing off a chicken's head, thus breaking the prisoner's neck and causing instant death.

A Bone in His Throat.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., April 29.—The Rev. John A. Lienberger, whose family reside in this city during his stay upon his farm in Parke county, met with an accident that came near resulting fatally. KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

and how to attain it.

At last a medical work that tells the causes, describes the effects, points the remedy. This is scientifically the most valuable, artistically the most beautiful, medical book that has appeared for years; 96 pages, every page bearing a half-tone illustration in tint. Some of the subjects treated are Nervous Debility, Impotency, Sterility, Development, Varicocele, The Husband, Those Intending Marriage, etc. Every man who would know the grand truths, the plain facts, the old secrets, and the new discoveries of medical science as applied to married life, who would atone for past follies and avoid future pitfalls, should write for this wonderful little book. It will be sent free, under seal. Address the publishers, Erie Medical Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

TUCKAHOE

Stock Farm!

PTOLEMY, 5:170, full brother to Citizen, 2:21 1/2, and Waymart, 2:27 1/2. By Happy Medium, 4:00, sire of the great Nanny Hank, 2:04, Riley Medium, 2:10 1/2, Maxey Cobb, 2:13 1/2, and eighty-two others in the 2:30 list. $25 to insure a living colt.

PTOLEMY'S first dam Patsy F., by Mambrino Patchen 88, the greatest brood mare sire that ever lived. He sired twenty-two trotters and the dams of seventy-two in the 2:30 list and the grand sire of over one hundred.

Happy Medium is unrivaled by any other sire of speed. There is no better bred horse on earth than Ptolemy. You cannot make a mistake in breeding to him. He has size—being 16 1/2 hands high—is a beautiful dark bay of fine style and action, and is as sound as a dollar. You are liable to get a race horse or bound to get a large, rangy roadster that always sells. His colts now yearlings are all bays, large and fine. Mars sent to him will secure the best of attention. I have plenty of grass, for which no charge will be made the first thirty days while breeding. In breeding to highly bred standard horses you are breeding in and improving your stock.

I also have a fine, large SPANISH JACK that is a sure foal. Gets large and fine colts. Terms $10 to insure a living colt.
